MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Reports at the annual meeting of the United Congregational church Thursday evening showed that the church had one of the most successful years in its history in 1921, not only in regard to finances but in the various activities carried on by the numerous organizations. The reports were made by the clerk and treasurer and by officers of the various departments. The meeting was held at the Community house.

The meeting was called to order by the pastor, Rev. Alexander H. Abbott, following a delicious chicken pie supper served by the Woman's guild under the direction of Mrs. John Kukia, chairman of the committee. There were about 300 clerk, Joseph S. In closing the meeting Rev. Alexander H. Abbott spoke of the wonderful prog-ress made by the church not only in the matter of finances and increase in bership but in the welding of the forces of the church into a mechanism for the progress of religion, the fundamental principle of the church. The opportunity n the United Congregational church to nterpret the meaning of religion to the present generation is great. We have the mechanism, the gathering of the forces for the interpretation of religion a sthe main principle in life. Let us not lepart from this path and keep hammering at this principal function of the church, the interpretation of religion through our lives as well as through the

ENTRAL BAPTIST TREASURER SERVED FOR 25 YEARS The Central Baptist church held us

The Central Baptist Church 200 S2nd annual meeting Thursday evening with an attendance of over 200 before whom interesting reports were presented from all departments of the church. The annual meeting was called to order at 7.30 following a supper served at 6.30.

In the election of officers one notable change occurred when C. Edward Smith, treasurer of the church for the past 25 years was succeeded by John Palmer Post, as Mr. Smith had previ-ously informed the nominating committee that he desired to close his services in the office with the completion quarter century of service. Mr. who succeeds him, has been the assistant treasurer.

Charles D. Noyes, president of board of managers, who acted as chair-man of the annual meeting, feelingly ex-pressed the profound debt of gratitude which the church felt towards Mr. Smith for his markedly faithful service. He mentioned that over a quarter million dollars of the church money has been handled by the treasurer, in the twenty-five years. In appreciation of Treasurer Smith's services. Mr. Noves presented him on behalf of the church a purse of gold, which Mr. Smith acknowledged in a few suitable words.
